

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION SCHOOL NEWS-January 23, 2020
BY MR. DUTTWEILER

Dear Parents,

Next week is our annual Catholic Schools' Week celebration. Enclosed in this newsletter are the day to day events. On Tuesday which is our Mass and Grandparents' Reception I would like the students to Dress Up. This means no jeans, sneakers, tee shirts, etc. For the girls, leggings need to be worn with a skirt. For the rest of the week there is a theme. If the students do not want to participate in the theme, it may be a regular dress down day. There is no need for anyone to buy anything special.

Please remember to sell your Pot of Gold tickets. It is an important fundraiser for our school. If anyone is able to help with the Bell Jar, please contact Mrs. Lorenzo or use the sign up genius.

Please continue to bring in any plastic bags you may have for the Response To Love Center.

I regret to announce that our music teacher for the last six years is leaving on Friday. Mrs. Shelley Wos has taken a new position with BOCES in setting up a new music program. While this is a great opportunity for Mrs. Wos, it is a loss to our school. Mrs. Wos has done a wonderful job with our Christmas Programs, Spring Concerts, Graduations, Guardian Angel Receptions. She always was able to bring out the musical talents of our students. Mr. Glenn Colton will be replacing Mrs. Wos. If his name sounds familiar, it is because he is a professional musician who has performed at many schools and events. He will start right after Catholic Schools' Week.

Enclosed in this newsletter is a flyer about Charlie Benzin. He is going to have his head shaved for the Bald For Bucks Program. This will be done next Wednesday afternoon. The flyer is asking for donations for this worthwhile cause.

Thank You to the following people who are helping to make Catholic Schools' Week a success.

Mrs. Russo, Mrs. Howe, Mrs. Sexton for decorating the front window at Vidler's
Mrs. Szczepanski for coordinating the book fair
Mrs. Gerard and the Student Council for preparing Tuesday's Mass
Mrs. York for selecting pictures and having them enlarged for Mass
Mrs. Finnerty for organizing the Grandparents' Reception
Mrs. Sexton for supervising the Response To Love Dinner
Mrs. Kerr, Mrs. Reilly, and Mrs. Gerard for overseeing the blanket production
Mrs. Warner for facilitating the ice skating and visit to the Boys' and Girls' Club
Mrs. Mozrall for helping with skating and volleyball

And everyone who will help with these activities.

Sincerely,

Joseph Duttweiler

Principal

SHAVE THE DATE

Snipping, clipping and shaving our way to cancer cures!

Dear Friends,

I am raising money for Roswell Park and I would like to invite you to help.

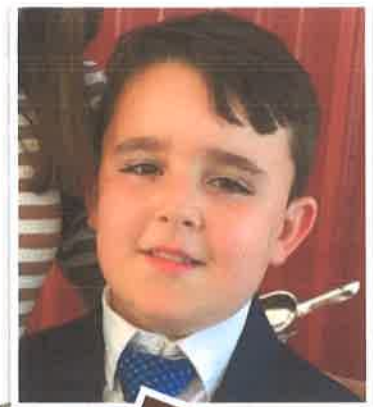

I know people who have battled cancer—and won. I know that others have lost. Roswell Park helps people with cancer and is working hard to make sure it doesn't get to others. I like that.

I saw people lose their hair during their fight. Their bodies were weak and they couldn't do even the simplest things that everyone else does every day. Cancer needs to be stopped!

So on Wednesday, January 29, I'll be shaving my head in front of my friends at Immaculate Conception. I do this so your Bald for Bucks pledge will help Roswell find a cure and care for current patients!

Thank you!

Charlie
