

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION SCHOOL NEWS- MAY 6, 2021
BY MR. DUTTWEILER

Dear Parents,

Last Friday the teachers and students surprised me for Principal Appreciation Day. The Student Council had each class sign a congratulatory poster and officers Amelia Jakubczak and Anna Filipiak presented me with balloons, a Visa gift card, sponge candy, and M & M's. All of my favorites! Special thanks to Mrs. Gerard and Mrs. Hycner for coordinating these efforts. Many thanks to Mr. Glenn Colton and several of his music classes who played their ukuleles and sang, "Happy Principals' Day".

Enclosed in this newsletter is an opportunity from Mr. Colton. He is offering virtual ukulele lessons this summer. See the flyer if you are interested.

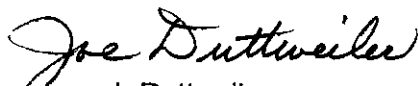

Tomorrow is supposed to be our Spring Picture Day. The weather does not look good for it. All students can still have a non uniform day tomorrow. If we cancel tomorrow, we will reschedule, but we may only give a day or two notice. We would like to see how outdoor pictures look. So we will give it another try soon.

In recent days I have heard several compliments about our school from various people. A public school supervisor was here visiting and she said walking around the school she found the students engaged in learning and seemed to be very happy. A perspective family toured the school and found the teachers and students to be very friendly and outgoing. We also received a visit from the Catholic Schools Superintendent who remarked our test scores the last few years are impressive.

If you know anyone of Kindergarten age, please spread the word about our school. We do have some openings for the other grades as well.

To all of the Mothers, I hope all of you have a wonderful and happy Mothers' Day.

Sincerely,

Joseph Duttweiler
Principal
